

Do you need to write the OSSLT this spring? All information slips are out to students. If you have a conflict or are missing a slip please see Mrs. Campsall in the front office.

The test starts on the week of April 8th! Please be mindful of the need to be quiet in the foyer so as not to disturb those writing in the library next week.

An announcement from GSA: Monica Helms, a trans activist, designed the first transgender pride flag in 1999 as a symbol of trans diversity and rights. The flag debuted at a Pride parade in Phoenix in 2000. She used pink and blue stripes to represent colors that have traditionally been associated with girls and boys, with white for people who are intersex, transitioning, or who don't have a defined gender.

Mandatory poetry meeting this Friday in room 304. Mandatory poetry meeting this Friday in room 304

Attention all girls slo-pitch players. We will be having a short meeting today at lunch in room 320. See you there!

Attention Grade 12 Students.....Nantyr Shores Presents this years PROM event.... "A Night of Lights". Tickets will be on sale through Cash Online April 2nd to April 19th to all Grade 12 students. Make sure you have purchased your Grade 12 Student Card and pick up a Guest Form from the main office if you are planning on bringing a guest who does not attend Nantyr Shores. See Mrs. Anderson or Mrs. Krogman in room 234 with further questions.

Interested in the Military? We are hosting a Military Co-op information session on Thursday April 4. A current Nantyr Student who is in the program will be telling you what it's really like. Sign up in Room 234. Limited space.

Are you a Mountain Biker? Check out the "I'm Interested in Mountain Biking" posters around the school and click the QR code to put your name on the list. There will be a start-up meeting Thursday April 4 at lunch in room 215.

ECOS will be meeting today at lunch in portable 4!

Do you sing? Are you interested in singing in the Day of Pink assembly? Come by the music room TODAY at the beginning of lunch to audition. Please come prepared with a song to sing. Again, anyone interested in singing in the Day of Pink assembly, please come by the music room today at the beginning of lunch. Hope to see you there!