

Orange Shirt Day is an Indigenous-led grassroots commemorative day intended to raise awareness of the individual, family, and community inter-generational impacts of residential schools, and to promote the concept of “Every Child Matters”. The orange shirt is a symbol of the stripping away of culture, freedom and self-esteem experienced by Indigenous children over generations. As a school, we will be commemorating the day tomorrow, Wednesday sept 27th.

In honour of this week being Truth and Reconciliation week, TOMORROW we will participate in Orange Shirt Day! Please wear your orange shirt to honour the survivors and the families of those who endured the many hardships of residential schools.
